

WADSWORTH HAS SCHOOL FOR COOKS WITH 200 STUDENTS

Suitable Buildings Being Erected and Corps of Instructors Is Large.

(Special to The Evening World.)
SPARTANBURG, S. C., June 13.— A permanent school for army cooks and bakers is being established here under the direction of Capt. Daniel North of the Quartermasters' Corps.
Suitable buildings are being constructed. The school will open with an attendance of approximately 200 and will be kept at about this figure at all times.

The educational work of the Army Y. M. C. A. here has been greatly increased by the arrival of many drafted men, and more men are needed for the work. J. S. Kingsley, formerly of New York, is Educational Secretary for this camp and is assisted by Prof. J. S. Libby of Wofford College, this city, and by a number of volunteer instructors among the officers and men in camp.

There are now 1,500 officers and 2,000 enlisted men taking a course in French and classes are held in different parts of camp every night.
There are some 5,000 foreign born soldiers in camp, about 1,000 of whom speak little or no English, and special courses are being arranged for them. In addition there are nearly 1,000 illiterate native born soldiers among the draft men here, most of them from Southern States, and these are being taught to read and write.
The educational work is becoming the most important of the Y. M. C. A. activities in Camp Wadsworth, and with the coming of additional draft men soon it will be greatly increased.
An officers' club is being formed in camp, the buildings of the Spartanburg Country Club having been leased for the purpose.

WARFIELD NOT TO RETIRE.

Neither is Evelyn Nesbit to Become a Belasco Star, He Says.
A double-edged rumor dealing with David Warfield's plans for next season—that David Warfield was to retire from the stage and Evelyn Nesbit was to become a dramatic actress and a Belasco star both at the same time—was squashed yesterday by Mr. Belasco's denial.

HOW HE GETS HIS HATS.
(From the Detroit Free Press.)
"John, your old hat is getting shabby."
"Yes, I think I'll have to buy a new one."
"Oh, I wouldn't spend my own money for it, if I were you. Can't you find somebody who will let you a hat against a sure thing?"

No. 4 of a Series of REAL BOY Talks. Is He YOUR Boy?

The Bean Stalk Boy Who Shot up Like a Reed

He's gawky and awkward, yet young and under-developed. He would wear kid's clothes if his age counted, but his size has got to be reckoned with, and that's where his pride comes in. Yet mother wants to keep him looking young. Buy his clothes here where the most youthful models are made with narrow chests and shoulders for just that boy.

- Suits that won't make him look like a gawk.
- Shirts, long and skinny, that won't bunch up around the neck and shoulders.
- Pajamas with legs not like Charlie Chaplin's trousers.
- Thick Sweaters, to make him look a little bit fatter and incidentally keep him warm.
- Hats that look nifty even on a thin face.

Is He YOUR Boy? Next Thursday another typical American will be given this space.
